

Downtown Algonquin Association
December 1, 2025 10:03 am
Bella's Woodfire Pizzeria, Algonquin, IL 60102

CALL TO ORDER

The Monday December 1 2025 meeting of the Downtown Algonquin Association was called to order by Colatorti at 10:03 a.m.

ROLL CALL

Julie Callahan, Patrick Knapp, Robert Novak, Tony Colatorti, and Mark Bidinger
Others in attendance: Paul Kopetsky, Toni Spena, and Jen Chanda

PUBLIC COMMENT

Toni Spena inquired about volunteer opportunities within the DAA and her willingness to contribute.

AGENDA

Approval of the Minutes from:

June 2, 2025
November 3, 2025
November 17, 2025

None were presented.

REPORTS

Treasurer's Report:

Account statement balance and payment of bills November 1 – November 30 balance beginning at $22,230.65, and ending at $22,903.23 with deposits and credits of $1,269.00 related to a Euclid reimbursement credit for the AOTF Beer Tent. Withdrawals of $596.42 ($200.00 to Garden on Main for the DAA Social, $171.42 for Duck Event Expense reimbursement, and $225.00 to GL Anderson and Assoc. for Tax Preparation).
The current balance in the DAA account is $22,903.23 as of 11/30.

Jen Chanda presented an invoice for $664.54 for general marketing and events. Motion to approve by Julie Callahan and Tony Colatorti seconded it.

President's Report:

The annual membership meeting was well attended. The election of board positions will be postponed until the January meeting.

Marketing and Membership Committees

Lori Mason will be leading the Santa Hut decorations for Miracle on Main. Julie Callahan to purchase candy canes for the event and supplied for the tent.

Future Meetings:

1/5, 2/2, 3/9, 4/6, 5/4, 6/1, 7/1, 8/3, 9/14, 10/5, 11/2, 12/7

Other Business:

Future ribbon cuttings will be scheduled for Short Stacks located at 208 S Main, a pottery store located at 203 S Main, and Soundbite located at 113 S Main.

The first DAA social will be held at Whiskey and Wine. Date in January TBD.

Adjournment

Novak motioned to Adjourn the meeting at 10:31 am, Callahan seconded.

Respectfully submitted,

Paul Kopetsky
Downtown Algonquin Association - Member